General News.

New York, Jan. 22d.

The ship Garibaldi came off the South-west Spit yesterday undamaged, and proceeds on her voyage to San Francisco with the first fair wind.

Times's special from Washington 21st--Gen.

Butler left to-day for Fortress Monroe hopeful that he will be able to release our prisoners at Richmond within a month. He will not recede an inch from the high ground he has taken with the Confederate authorities. An officer of Gen. Bank's command writes to a friend here that before the end of June the whole of the country west of the river will be clear of the rebels in arms. Large quantities of cotton come within our lines from plantations from the interior of Texas. A Memor from Wisconsin, strongly signed, will be presented to the House soon, praying for the impeachment of a Judge of the U. S. Supreme Court for bribery and corruption upon the Bench in his conduct in 1861-2-3.

World's special: The number of refugees now passing through the military lines is very large.

Gentlemen from Mississippi says, the rebel conscription is being enforced but the conscripts desert as fast as collected. Late arrivals from within the rebel lines at Orleans report the rebel-ion can't stand much longer. Their currency has become worthless; planters hide away everything of value from the rebel impressment. Rumor says Longstreet recently made a tender of an important character to the General government, involving no less than the surrender of his force. An official has detailed, rumor says, to hold an interview with and agree upon the terms. Such were the

Not say how much truth there is in the story.

Regular meeting of the Democratic caucus last night passed a resolution for a committee to prepare an Address to the Conservative people of the United States.

Report of the Commissioner of Agriculture.

Washington, 21st.

It appears from a communication from the Commissioner of Agriculture to the Agricultural Committee of the Senate, that in the Commissioner's opinion the proposed tax of twenty per cent. on leaf tobacco, would destroy the export trade which now gives us twenty million dollars of revenue. It estimates our average crop at less than one third the product of the world, and shows that the exports of Brazil have increased seven fold in two years. Holland and Belgium have increased their product several hundred per cent., and other European states have made an advancement. The report concludes that the United States does not control the tobacco trade, and that the capacity of other countries to grow all they need is ample.

Col. Joseph McKibben, Aid-de-Camp to Major-

General Thomas, has tendered his resignation, with the view of returning to the Pacific coast.

The Tax on Liquors.

Chicago, Jan. 23d.

Some of the amendments to the tax bill which passed the House yesterday, were erroneously reported last night. The following is correct: Section 1 provides a duty of sixty cents a gallon on all spirits (first proof) distilled and sold or removed for consumption or sale. Adulterated liquors pay an additional duty of twenty cents a gallon; provided, said duty on spirituous beverages shall be collected at no lower rate than first proof and shall be increased in proportion for any greater strength than the strength of first proof. Spirits distilled prior to date of this act to be subject to the rates of duty provided by it from and after the twelfth of January, except spirits which have been already taxed under the law of July sixty-two, which shall not bear more than the additional tax provided by this act. All distilled spirits upon which excise duty is imposed by the law, may be exported without payment of said duty, and when the same is intended for exportation, may, without being charged with such duty, be removed under such regulations, and upon the execution for such transportation, of such bonds as the Secretary of the Treasury may prescribe; provided, said spirits are transported directly from the distillery, to a bonded warehouse, and in no case shall a drawback be allowed. Section 7 provides that there shall be collected on spirits distilled from grain or other material, whether American or Foreign production imported from Foreign countries, of first proof, a duty of forty cents a gallon, and no lower rate of duty shall be collected than upon the basis of first proof, and shall be increased in proportion for any greater strength than the strength of first proof, and upon all such spirits imported prior to the passage of this act, there shall be levied an additional tax of forty cents, except on cotton bought and sold by Government, which is free from tax.

Unhealthy Country for Blockade Runners---

Gigantic Ship Canal Project.

Washington, Jan. 22d.

A dispatch from Admiral Lee reports the destruction of twenty-one blockade runners, within a short period, off Wilmington. The estimated cost of a ship canal around Niagara Falls, is fifty-five hundred thousand dollars. It is proposed to build it from the headwater to Lewiston, a distance of eight miles. In addition to this, thirty-five hundred thousand will be asked for the enlargement of Locks on the Oswego and Erie canals. Four millions for a canal from the St. Lawrence river via Lake Champlain to Albany. Thirteen millions for enlargement of the Illinois canal, so that vessels of six hundred tons burthen can pass. The question affecting the banishment of Vallandigham was

Loyal Convention in Tenn.--Andy Johnson vs Copperheads.

Nashville, Jan. 22d.

There was a meeting of over 2,000 at the Capitol to-night to consult on the restoration of a civil government in the State. Resolutions were passed recognizing the authority of the Federal government to secure a representative government in the rebellious States by appointing Military Governors and denouncing slavery as an evil itself and the cause of the rebellion, and advising the reorganization of a State government by a Constitutional Convention composed of delegates pledged to immediate universal emancipation. The resolutions commend the integrity and fidelity of Gov.

Johnson and request him to call such Convention.

A committee was appointed to select delegates to the Southern Free State Convention at Louisville.

Governor Johnson favored a State Convention and said slavery has been the disturbing element which has tried to put down the Government, and the Government should put it down immediately and forever. He wanted a free white-man's government, but his platform was broad enough for freedom of all, white and black. We must restore a State government on right and righteous principles, strike the fetters off of the slave and let the oppressed go free. Gradual emancipation was preposterous, for it proposed to fit the slave for freedom by prolonging his slavery.

Cincinnati, Jan. 23d.

Two ballots were had in the Legislature yesterday for Senator. Guthrie will probably be elected.

From Louisiana.

New York, 23d.

By the Creole, from Orleans the 5th: Banks' proclamation is the chief topic, and is much commented by loyal men. Grover's division of the army has been ordered to Madisonville. In another revolution at Matamoras, Ruiz took charge of the city on the 1st; he was to resign the next day, and names three persons who were to be presented to the Supreme Government, out of whom they were to select a Governor; none of them to be persons who have taken part in the pending question.

General News.

Chicago, Jan. 23d.

New York, 23. The Herald's special says: Deserters arriving within our lines, say that the President's amnesty proclamation is creating a state of feeling in the rebel army which indicates its utter demoralization. Recruits and returning convalescents are daily swelling the ranks of our army.

A Havana letter reports the arrival of the steamer Raphael at Matamoras, from New York.

intended for a blockade runner. An Orleans letter says a light draft river fleet is fitting for active duty. The writer thinks they and the troops returning from Attakapas, are intended for a combined advance up Red River.

Tribune's special says: The statements as to the reduction in navy appropriations are likely to be misinterpreted. The Ways and Means Committee took ground that the Navy bill should only cover the estimates for the current expenses and work in hand likely to be completed during the coming year. The building of iron clads, or additional steamers, are to be made the subject of special appropriations.

New York, Jan. 23d.

Special: Sharp musketry fire continued for several minutes; heard Thursday, p. m., among the rebels near Ely's ford. It is supposed to have been occasioned by a concerted attempt to desert by a considerable body of rebels. Reports in regard to the gradual evacuation of Richmond continue. It is positively stated that the removal of the gun making machinery from the Tredegar works has been going on for some weeks. The Unionists of Louisiana are trying to have the State election postponed by the President until after a Convention is held to adopt a new Constitution and regulate old laws recognizing slavery.

Governor Pierpont and the Alexandria Legislature have protested against Butler's vigorous administration at Norfolk.

The number of deserters coming into our lines the past three days is unusually large.

The World's special says: Cox will introduce a bill next week taxing the holders of gold and of bills exchange, foreign and otherwise, 2 per cent.

a month.

Bold Burglary and Robbery in S. L. City.

On Saturday night a room in Mrs. Lee's Boarding House, occupied by Thomas Hickman, John Hill and others, recently from the mines, was entered or at least robbed of a large sum of money. Hickman and Hill lately arrived here, having been engaged in teaming between the City and Reese river. Their room was on the ground floor and the window was not fastened. Immediately under the window the unfortunates left their pants lying on a trunk. In the morning they found the window partly opened and their clothing rifled of its contents. Hickman lost $260, and Hill $35. As this was about all the money these men had it is a peculiarly hard case, but we learn that the officers are on the track of the vagabond who stole the money, and there is little doubt will be able to make him refund, and we hope punish him for his villainy.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY YDETTE.]

From the South--The Papers begin to tell the Truth.

Baltimore, Jan. 23d.

The Richmond Whig of the 15th, says: Some southern papers are apprehensive of an attack on Savannah, as part of the enemy's programme on the coast during the winter. This is inferred from certain recent movements at Hilton Head, which seems to indicate a concentration of forces for that purpose. Another reason for the belief is that it would constitute a base of operations against Charleston.

North Carolina papers continue to demand peace. The Raleigh Progress says: Peace alone can prevent starvation, it is folly to talk about there being enough supplies in the country. Such is not the fact, and those who adhere to such a mistake will find the mistake when too late. Confederate money is bad enough, but the dearth of provisions is not caused by a want of confidence in the currency, but because the producers have nothing to bring in. We tell the people and the authorities that the present condition of things cannot and will not last. The masses of the honest and hard working people have been deceived long enough, and will not suffer it to endure always. Peace they want and peace they will have; if not upon such terms as the leaders who have betrayed them desire, upon such terms as they themselves shall prescribe. Rich men may house meat and bread, but we tell them it will not remain with them unless the poor are provided for. Peace, such as statesmen and honest rulers might obtain, would give an abundance of all the creature comforts, but a continuation of the war will rob us of all social and political rights, and make the many, slaves of the few. We believe a peace can be made that the world will consider honorable, and those who assume to rule, ought to take steps to make it, for enough has been said by the enemy to satisfy all reasonable men that they would gladly remove the quarrel from the sword and refer it to the council chamber.

Another article says: There is not another man to spare from the pursuits of the country, and another draft on this class, will be fraught with the most disastrous consequences. Congress, we fear, is disposed to run to extremes, especially those members whose States are largely or entirely in the hands of the enemy. Judging the future by the past, we cannot say that we expect anything from it. Its members have neither patriotism nor statesmanship for the awful crisis with which they have to deal.

Executive Department, Utah Ter., G. S. L. City,
Jan. 21st, 1864.

To the Hon. Council and House of Representatives of the Legislative Assembly of Utah Ter.

Gentlemen:—Before your final adjournment I deem it proper to inform you that I am constrained to withhold my signature and approval from the act entitled "An Act concerning mining claims," my reasons for this course are many, and I deem it necessary only to advert to some of them. In my annual Message your attention was called and favorable consideration asked to the new field of enterprise, which the working and discovery of mines of precious metals opens to the people of this Territory. I regarded these discoveries as in the highest degree important and matters of a sincere congratulation to you and your constituents, and indulged the hope that the Legislature would esteem it a duty and a privilege to enact such laws as would tend to promote, encourage, and foster mining.

AMOS REED, Acting Governor.

The following was received and read:

Council Chamber, Jan 21st, 1864.

On motion of Mr. Lunt, the House adjourned to Jan. 22d, at 10 a. m. Benediction by the Chaplain.

ARMY HYMN.
Oh Lord of Hosts, almighty King, Behold the sacrifice we bring;
To every arm thy strength impart; Thy spirit shed through every heart; Wake in our breasts the living fires.
The holy faith that warmed our sires.
Thy hand hath made our Nation free;
To die for her is serving thee.
Be thou a pillar of fire to show The midnight mare, the silent foe,
And when the battle thunders loud, Still guide us in its smoking cloud.
God of all Nations, Sovereign Lord, In thy dread name we draw the sword;
We lift the Starry Flag on high,
That fills with light our stormy sky.
From treason rent, from murderous stain, Guard thou its folds 'till peace shall reign;
'Till fort and field, 'till land and sea, Join in loud anthems, praise to thee.

A SINGULAR DREAM—THE STARS AND STRIPES.—It is related to us that a few nights since, a lady residing in the Western Liberties, had a singular and beautiful dream. She seemed to see suspended between the Heavens and the earth, a sheep and a lamb, lying together, enveloped in a cloud radiant with light. From the cloud rich streams of crimson colored rays shot forth earthward, until the whole earth was flooded with their effulgent brightness, not unlike that, she thought, which ushered in the morn of creation. Above the whole vision, as above imperfectly described, was the flag of our country, its beautiful folds enveloped in a cloud of glory, from which golden scintillations radiated in lines of inconceivable beauty in every direction.
If dreams were reliable, an interpretation of this one would be very simple. The sheep and the lamb would indicate the return of peace, and the radiant cloud the glory thereof; while the flag above would signify the triumphant success of those who sustain it, and its increasing beauty and glory for the storm through which it had passed.—Sandusky (O) Reg'r.

COFFEE IN THE ARMY.—Some wise man proposed in Congress the substitution of tea for coffee in the army, and told the people that the soldiers would welcome the change. A tolerably fair specimen of theoretical stay-at-home wisdom, but not worth a Sabbath day's journey of the Queen of Sheba to look at. Why, coffee is their true aqua vitae; their solace and mainstay. When a boy cannot drink his coffee, you may be sure he has done drinking altogether. On a march, no sooner is a halt ordered than little fires begin to twinkle along the line; they make coffee in five minutes, drink it in three, take a drill at a hard crack, and are refreshed. Our comrades from "der Rhine" will squat phlegmatically anywhere, even in line of battle. No sooner has the storm swept to some other part of the field, than the kettles begin to boil, and amid stray bullets and shattered shell they take great swallows of heart and coffee together. It is Rhine wine, the soul of Gambrinus, "Switzer" and "Limberger" is one.

A PARAGRAPH has been going the rounds of the press in which an account is given of a horse having a new hoof grown on by the use of a certain farrier's ointment. Now this reminds us of an incident that happened in Lyons, Wisconsin. A Mormon priest named Nichols professed a power of doing miraculous things and compounding wonderful medicines. He made a nerve and bone all-healing salve, and thought he would experiment a little with it. He first cut off his dog's tail, and applied some of the salve to the stump. A new tail grew out immediately. He then applied some to the piece of tail which he had cut off, and a new dog grew out. He didn't know which dog was which. This seems a tough story, but we have Nichols' word for it, and we think he won't lie.
